A Missions Request

We are so thankful for God's love for us! As we minister to one of the most unreached in the world, God has reminded me again and again that its about Him and His love. I've had several conversations with Turkish ladies in the past two weeks about what true love is. Many see it as respect or loving someone who is worthy to love, but when we mention Christ's love or God's love it is foreign to them, yet many of them are intrigued by His love mentioned in 1 Corinthians 13, His love is unconditional. His love is real, and its a never giving up, always seeking the best kind of love. Would you please pray for these women God has placed in my life to seek after Christ? To seek His love?
