The Milner Messenger

(Monthly Newsletter of Milner Baptist Church)

January 2017

Dr. Ken's Pen

A new year is here, but before we enter it there are some things I would like to say about the last year.

I am so very proud of the way our dear church has responded to the needs of each other, our community and beyond. Here is a partial list of gifts you have contributed to:

Cooperative Program-$15,330.90

Centennial Baptist Association-$4,599.22

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions -$1,495.00

State Missions for the Georgia Baptist Convention-$1,390.00

Georgia Baptist Children's Home-$500.00

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions-$2000.00

Samaritans Purse-$106.00

Little Children of the World-$128.77

Also you sent 33 pack backs filled with toys and clothing to the Appalachia area through our Centennial Baptist Association and 30 shoeboxes filled with toys to the ministry of Franklin Graham's Samaritan's Purse (These gifts were given and the children were told of the love of God). Many local families were helped with food during the year through our "Storehouse Ministry." Special needs children of Lamar County were given toys by you for Christmas. Our church participated in activities sponsored by the City of Milner in order to share the Gospel message. You gave generously for us to have Dr. Dean Register of Mississippi come for our Revival. I am sure there are many others who have been ministered to through the Sunday school, WMU and the Brotherhood.

Thank you for being a "Great Commission Church."

Remember God loves you and so do I.
