Dr. Ken’s Pen

It's the time of the year when Bob Becker (my church member and friend), my wife Donna and I to form our annual garden partnership. The first part of the partnership requires Bob to bear the cost of planting the garden, fertilizing, weeding the garden, harvesting and then bringing my share as stipulated to my house. There Donna prepares the veggies, cooks them and puts them before me to eat as is stated in the partnerships, MY PART OF THE PARTNERSHIP IS TO ENJOY THE BOUNTY OF THE HARD WORK BY BOB AND DONNA., WELL SOMEONE HAS TO COMPLETE THE PARTNERSHIP.

As you can see, about all I do in that partnership is to enjoy what others do. That is very much like many in the church. We only want to enjoy the bounty of the hard work of others. We brag about what “WE” do as a church when in reality it is others who bear the cost, investing their time and doing all the work. Sometime we will even criticize what they do.

In the near future the Nominating Committee will begin their work. Begin now asking God where He would have you serve. Don’t be like me, enjoying the bounty of hard work by our fellow members and friends in our dear church.

Our annual Homecoming Celebration is Sunday, July 24. Our guest preacher for the celebration will be Dr. Gerald Harris, Editor of The Christian Index. Begin now inviting family and friends to be with us on that special Sunday.

Remember, God loves you and so do I.

Dr. Ken...

(By the way Mr. Keith Lassiter, our Chairman of Deacons asked where a deacon could fit in this partnership. I agreed for him to join. His job will be to wash the dishes when I finish eating. Ah, life is good.)
